

Rebecca J. Collins, Pharm D, BCPS

Rebecca J. Collins, Pharm.D., BCPS serves as the Interim Clinical Manager, PGY1 Residency Director and Education Coordinator for Bon Secours Virginia Health System. She also practices as the Antimicrobial Stewardship Team Lead at Memorial Regional Medical Center and Bon Secours Health System. Prior to becoming a residency director, Dr. Collins was an Assistant Professor of Pharmacy and Family Medicine at the Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU), Medical College of Virginia (MCV). She still holds an appointment with Family Medicine and is now an Affiliate Associate Professor of Pharmacy at VCU. She currently teaches pharmacy residents and students in the clinical area of Infectious Diseases and offers advanced practice professional experiences in Acute Geriatric Care and Internal Medicine. She is a co-founder of the Stewardship Interest Group of Virginia.