

Susan Moeslein MSA, BSN, RN, ACM-RN, CIC

Sue Moeslein is a second career nurse and has been an Infection Preventionist since 2008. She became recertified this year in Infection Prevention and is working at Mary Immaculate Hospital in Newport News, VA. Sue has been active with the Association for Professional in Infection Control and Epidemiology (APIC) Virginia Board as a member of the Nominating Committee, Recording Secretary and President and is currently serving as Treasurer Elect. She is a member of the International Association of Healthcare Central Service Material Management (IAHCSMM) Certification Council and the Virginia Healthcare Associated Infections (HAI) Advisory Group.